West Washington News.

The funeral of Mr. Louis Johnson, an old and respected resident, took place Monday afternoon from Mt. Zion M. E. Church, and was largely attended by the Columbia Lodge of Odd Fellows and Order of Samaritans, of which he was a member. Rev. D. W. Peck officiated. Interment, Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Mrs. Lizzie Branson and Mrs. Rebecca Washington are visiting Mrs. Iola Jackson, of Philadelphia, Pa.

The United Order of Elks attended services last Sunday evening at the Alexander Memorial Baptist Church, N street, between 27th and 28th streets northwest. Rev. Carroll, the pastor, delivered the address. Music was furnished by the new choir, Prof. Green choir master, Mrs. Mary Barnes organist.

Miss Ethel Kent, of 8th street, is visiting friends in Purcellville, Va.

Master James H. Turner, Jr., has returned after a six weeks visit to his uncle, Mr. J. Ferdinand Turner, of Baltimore, Md.

The Piedmont Hotel.

Mr. Charles W. Edwards has opened the Piedmont Hotel in first-class style. The Excise Board on last Saturday granted the proprietor, Mr. Edwards, liquor license. It is the intention of Mr. Edwards to conduct a first-class colored hotel and bar for the accommodation of his people, and keep strictly within the law. It will be one of the best managed and reputable hotels of the colored people in this city. Give him a call—489 and 491 Missouri avenue northwest.

Galbraith Church.

The Sunday morning and evening services at the Galbraith Church, of which Rev. S. S. Corrothers is pastor, were crowded to overflowing. There is no doubt that Dr. Corrothers has made this church one of the most popular and strongest in the city. An effort is now on foot to raise $5,000. There is no doubt of his determination to raise this amount.

Dr. W. L. Smith.

Among the druggists in this city who are meeting the demands of the people is Dr. W. L. Smith, corner of 4th and Elm streets northwest. Dr. Smith is not only an enterprising druggist, but he is a manufacturer to some extent in the line of business in which he is engaged. The Bee has known him for a great number of years, and knows him to be a man of industry and perseverance. He conducts the only drug store in Le Droit Park.

Eating Crow.

Col. Louis Jefferson, the manager of the Washington Steamboat Company, has been more than fair and just to the people of Washington. The many secret and benevolent organizations that attempted to boycott this company last year and patronize one that didn't care a penny for the colored people, find themselves eating crow this year. If Col. Jefferson had chose to be vindictive and mean, he had an excellent opportunity to raise prices this year, but instead of showing evil for evil, he has demonstrated a spirit of leniency and Christian charity. Had it not have been for him and his many white friends, the colored people would not have had a pleasure boat this year.

NEW DEPUTY CORONER.

Dr. Charles S. White Appointed to Succeed Dr. Glazebrook.

Dr. Charles S. White was appointed deputy coroner of the District of Columbia Wednesday by the Commissioners. He will succeed Dr. Larkin W. Glazebrook, who resigned last week to take up his new duties as chief surgeon of the Washington Railway and Electric Company.

Dr. White is 33 years old and was born in this city. He graduated from Columbian University Medical School in 1908. He has served on the staffs of Emergency Hospital, George Washington University Hospital and Columbian Hospital. He was superintendent of Emergency Hospital for four years.
